NIH-NIBIB Workshop on Point-Of-Care Technologies

Marion Room, Renaissance Hotel Seattle, WA

Thursday, Oct. 9, 2014

09.00 -9.15 Welcome and Introductory Remarks
Bill Heetderks, NIBIB Marion Room

9.15-9:45 Inexpensive Molecular Diagnostics for Cancer and Infectious Disease
Catherine Klapperich, Boston University Marion Room

9:45-10:15 Systems Engineering: Roadmap for Successful Clinical Adoption of POCT
John Collins, MIT Marion Room

10.15-10.30 Coffee Break Madison Ballroom Foyer

10.30-11.15 Non-Invasive Devices for Monitoring the Environment, Metabolism, and Pulmonary Diseases
Erica Forzani, ASU Marion Room

11:15-11:35 Mobile Sensor Data-to-Knowledge to Reduce the Burden of Complex Chronic Disease
Santosh Kumar, University of Memphis (video) Marion Room

11:35-12:00 POC for low and middle income countries
Jim Gallarda, Gates Foundation Marion Room

12.00-12.30 Discussion: What is the Pathway to Advancing POC?
Speakers and Audience Marion Room